Ordinary compound words and names written without break are counted as single words. If joined by a hyphen, or separated by an apostrophe or other sign of punctuation, they are counted as so many separate words. Compound numbers written in words and without break are also counted as single words, and limited as in the case of letters. The name of the place and country of designation in the addresses of telegrams are charged for as one word each, when so written by the sender, whatever their length.

A telegram addressed to several persons in the same town, or to the same firm at different localities in the same town, is charged for as a single telegram, and a sum of 5d. must be prepaid for every extra copy to be delivered, if the number of chargeable words does not exceed 100; an additional sum of 5d. being charged for every additional 100 words or part of 100 words. In calculating the charge, all the names and addresses are included; but telegrams of this kind are not accepted for America.

Telegrams may be sent from one place to another abroad by post.

STAMP AND LEGACY DUTIES, ETC.

The following is a list of Stamp Duties according to the schedule of the Stamp Act, 1891 (54 and 55 Vict. c. 39), which comes into operation on 1st January 1892, and except where otherwise mentioned, the sections referred to are those of the Act. Items relating solely to England and Ireland are omitted. The duties on certain instruments under the Conveyancing Act, 1874, are given above. The duties relating to Patent Medicine, Inventory, Stamp Account, Estate, Legacy, and Succession Duties, which remain under separate Acts, are inserted; also the exemptions which remain in force under other Acts. In the same session was passed the Stamp Duties Management Act, 54 and 55 Vict. c. 38. Generally, the items are given in the words of the schedule.

Except where express provision is made to the contrary, all duties are to be denoted by impressed stamps only.—§ 2.

Instruments are to be so stamped that the stamp may appear on the face of the instrument, and cannot be applied to any other instrument written upon the same piece of paper.—§ 3 (1). Every instrument on the same piece of paper is to be separately stamped.—§ 3 (2).

Instruments relating to several distinct matters are to be separately stamped in respect of each.—§ 4 (a). An instrument liable to ad valorem duty, if made for any other valuable consideration, is to be charged in respect of it as if it were a separate instrument for such.—§ 4 (b).

All the facts and circumstances affecting the liability of an instrument to ad valorem duty, or the amount of it, are to be fully and truly set forth. If not, fine on person who executes and on person concerned in the preparation, £10.—§ 5.

Foreign or colonial currency, or stock or marketable security, ad valorem duty to be calculated on value in British currency at current rate of exchange, or average price of stock or marketable security at date of instrument. Instrument containing statement of current rate of exchange, or average price, and stamped accordingly, to be deemed duly stamped until statement shown to be untrue, and that instrument is in fact insufficiently stamped.—§ 6.

An appropriated stamp (by word on the face of it) cannot be used for an instrument of another description.—§ 10 (1). An instrument of the description to which a stamp is appropriated is not to be duly stamped unless stamped with the stamp appropriated to it.—§ 10 (2).

The duties apply to instruments executed in the United Kingdom, or relating, wheresoever executed, to property situated, or to any matter or thing done or to be done, in the United Kingdom.—§ 14 (4). [Transfer of share registered in a Colonial Register under Companies (Colonial Registers) Act, 1883, deemed transfer of property situated out of United Kingdom, and, unless executed in any part of United Kingdom, exempt from British stamp duty.—46 and 47 Vict. c. 30, § 3 (7), (a).]

No instrument, except in criminal proceedings, shall be given in evidence, or be available for any purpose whatever, unless it is duly stamped in accordance with the law in force when executed.—§ 14 (4).

- (1.) The stamp on any material inadvertently and undesignedly spoiled, obliterated, or by any means rendered unfit for the purpose intended, before the material bears the signature of any person or any instrument written thereon is executed by any party;
- (2.) Any adhesive stamp which has been inadvertently and undesignedly spoiled or rendered unfit for use, and has not in the opinion of the commissioners been affixed to any material;
- (3.) Any adhesive stamp representing a fee capable of being collected by means of such stamp which has been affixed to material, provided that a certificate from the proper officer is produced to the effect that the stamp should be allowed.
- (4.) The stamp on any bill of exchange signed by or on behalf of the drawer which has not been accepted or made use of in any manner whatever or delivered out of his hands for any purpose other than by way of tender for acceptance.
- (5.) The stamp on any promissory note signed by or on behalf of the maker which has not been made use of in any manner whatever or delivered out of his hands:

- (6.) The stamp on any bill of exchange or promissory note which from any omission or error has been spoiled or rendered useless although the same, being a bill of exchange, may have been accepted or indorsed, or, being a promissory note, may have been delivered to the payee, provided that another completed and duly stamped bill of exchange or promissory note is produced identical in every particular, except in the correction of the error or omission, with the spoiled bill or note;
- (7.) The stamp used for any of the following instruments; that is to say—
 - (a.) An instrument executed by any party thereto, but afterwards found to be absolutely void from the beginning;
 - (b.) An instrument executed by any party thereto, but afterwards found unfit, by reason of any error or mistake therein, for the purpose originally intended;
 - (c.) An instrument executed by any party thereto which has not been made use of for any purpose whatever, and which, by reason of the inability or refusal of some necessary party to sign the same or to complete the transaction according to the instrument, is incomplete and insufficient for the purpose for which it was intended;
 - (d.) An instrument executed by any party thereto, which by reason of the refusal of any person to act under the same, or for want of enrolment or registration within the time required by law, fails of the intended purpose or becomes void;
 - (e.) An instrument executed by any party thereto which is inadvertently and undesignedly spoiled, and in lieu whereof another instrument made between the same parties and for the same purpose is executed and duly stamped, or which becomes useless in consequence of the transaction intended to be thereby effected being effected by some other instrument duly stamped;

- (a.) That the application for relief is made within six months after the stamp has been spoiled or become useless, or in the case of an executed instrument after the date of the instrument, or, if it is not dated, within six months after the execution thereof by the person by whom it was first or alone executed, or within such further time as the commissioners may prescribe in the case of any instrument sent abroad for execution, or when from unavoidable circumstances any instrument for which another has been substituted cannot be produced within the said period;
- (b.) That in the case of an executed instrument no legal proceeding has been commenced in which the instrument could or would have been given or offered in evidence, and that the instrument is given up to be cancelled;
- (c.) That in the case of stamps used for medicines or playing cards, the medicines or cards bearing the stamps are produced to an officer and the stamps are removed therefrom in his presence.

Allowance for Misused Stamps.—§ 10. When any person has inadvertently used for an instrument liable to duty a stamp of greater value than was necessary, or has inadvertently used a stamp for an instrument not liable to any duty, the commissioners may, on application made within six months after the date of the instrument, or, if it is not dated, within six months after the execution thereof by the person by whom it was first or alone executed, and upon the instrument, if liable to duty, being stamped with the proper duty, cancel and allow as spoiled the stamp so misused.

Allowance, how to be made.—§ 11. In any case in which allowance is made for spoiled or misused stamps the commissioner may give in lieu thereof other stamps of the same denomination and value, or if required, and they think proper, stamps of any other denomination to the same amount in value, or in their discretion, the same value in money, deducting therefrom the discount allowed on the purchase of stamps of the like description.

Stamps not wanted may be repurchased by the Commissioners.—§ 12. When any person is possessed of a stamp which has not been spoiled or rendered unfit or useless for the purpose intended, but for which he has no immediate use, the commissioners may, if they think fit, repay to him the value of the stamp in money, deducting the proper discount, upon his delivering up the stamp to be cancelled, and proving to their satisfaction that it was purchased by him at the chief office or at one of the head offices, or from some person duly appointed to sell and distribute stamps, or duly licensed to deal in stamps, within the period of six months next preceding the application, and with a bona fide intention to use it.

(See Note a.)

INVENTORY DUTY.

PROPERTY LIABLE TO THE DUTY.—Generally—All personal property (heritable securities are personal property, including bonds of annual rent and bonds of annuity and real burdens on land, but not securities by absolute disposition qualified by back bond) belonging to the deceased in the United Kingdom, heritable securities, and bonds excluding executors, and

a. The Inland Revenue Office, No. 10 Waterloo Place, Edinburgh, is open for the allowance of spoiled stamps every day except Saturday, from 10 A.M. to 3 P.M. (Saturday, 10 to 12). The distributors, most of the sub-distributors of stamps, and certain postmasters, also receive spoiled stamps for allowance.

A supply of forms of affidavit is kept at the Inland Revenue Office, and by the distributors of stamps, and by most of the sub-distributors and certain postmasters; and claimants may attend at the Inland Revenue Office and have the affidavits taken; or they may take the oath before a justice of the peace, and shortly afterwards lodge the affidavits and the stamps with any of the above officers. If not brought within ten days or a fortnight afterwards the stamp will not be allowed without a fresh affidavit. If the claim be lodged at Edinburgh, a ticket is issued stating that application is to be made for information as to the result of such claim after the next Monday, and within six weeks from the date of the ticket. If the claim be lodged with a distributor, or sub-distributor, or postmaster, a ticket is issued stating that application is to be made regarding such claim after a specified date, and within six weeks from the date of the ticket. If application not made within that time, the claim will be forfeited, and no excuse will be accepted.

The stamps must be presented for allowance within six months after being spoiled. In all cases the stamps must be delivered up to be cancelled.

also money secured by ex facie absolute disposition. (48 Geo. III. c. 149, § 38, etc.; 55 Geo. III. c. 184, Schedule, Part III.; 21 & 22 Vict. c. 56, §§ 9, 12, 13, etc.; 16 & 17 Vict. c. 59, § 8; 31 & 32 Vict. c. 101, §§ 3 and 117; 37 & 38 Vict. c. 94, § 30; and 23 & 24 Vict. c. 80.) [Proceeds of a life policy effected by a person dying domiciled elsewhere than in the United Kingdom not liable. (52 and 53 Vict. c. 42, § 19.)]

Personal Property—Absolute power of disposal.

Personal estate which a person dying after 3rd April 1860 shall have disposed of by will, under any authority enabling such person to dispose of the same as he shall think fit, shall be deemed personal or moveable estate of the person so dying, for the purpose of payment of inventory, probate, or administration duty. (23 Vict. c. 15, § 4.)

Indian Promissory Notes—Ships.

Indian Government promissory notes and certificates issued, or stock in lieu thereof, being assets of a deceased person, the interest of which shall be payable in London, registered in London, or enfaced in India for the purpose of such registration, before the death of the owner; also Indian Government promissory notes, with coupons attached, in the same circumstances as to registration; and certificates issued, or stock created in lieu thereof, shall be personal estate, and bona notabilia in England of the deceased person (23 Vict. c. 5, § 1): Also any ship, or any share of a ship, belonging to a deceased person, registered in any port in the United Kingdom, notwithstanding such ship at the time of the death may have been at sea, or elsewhere out of the United Kingdom, shall be deemed to be at the port at which she may be registered (27 & 28 Vict. c. 56), and liable to inventory, probate, or administration duty.

Specialty Debts.—For probate and administration duty, debts and sums of money due from persons in the United Kingdom to a deceased on obligation or other specialty, shall be estate and effects of the deceased within the jurisdiction of Her Majesty's Court of Probate in England or Ireland in which the same would be if they were debts upon simple contract, without regard to the place where the obligation or specialty shall be at the time of the death. (25 Vict. c. 22, § 39.)

Foreign Bonds and Stocks.—Documents of the debts of foreign governments and foreign companies which pass from hand to hand are property where the documents may be. Debentures or bonds by foreign companies and governments, and the title to stocks of foreign companies and governments, are property in this country, if in the possession of any person in this country, and can be sold in the market, and the title of the purchasers completed to them in this country. See Attorney-General v. Bouwens, 4 Meeson and Welsby 171.

Companies under the Companies Acts whose objects comprise business in a colony may have a branch register of members resident in said colony. The share of a deceased member registered in such colonial register shall be part of the estate of such deceased member for inventory duty, in like manner as if the registration had been in the registered office of the company, unless he shall have died elsewhere than in the United Kingdom. (46 & 47 Vict. c. 30, § 3 (7) (b), and 52 & 53 Vict. c. 42, § 15.)

Rents of Heritage.—If the deceased survive Whitsunday, one moiety of the rents of the crop of that year is personal estate. If he survive Martinmas, the whole rents of that crop fall into the executory. In addition, from and after 1st August 1870, the Act 33 & 34 Vict. 1870, c. 35, would seem to give the executor a proportion of the rents from the term preceding the date of death to the date of death. That Act would also seem to give a proportion of the term's rents of quarries, minerals, and houses, and also feu-duties current at the death. The executor's right to house rents would not therefore be to the half-year's rents current at death, but to a proportion only to the date of death.

MODES IN WHICH DUTY MAY BE PAID.

When deceased domiciled in Scotland.—In the case of a person dying domiciled in Scotland having personal property in Scotland, England, and Ireland, and also heritable securities excluding executors, and personal bonds excluding executors, duty in respect of the whole may be paid on the inventory required to be recorded in the Sheriff Court; or inventory duty may be paid on the personal property situated in Scotland, including heritable securities made moveable by the Act 31 & 32 Vict. c. 101, § 117, and duty may be paid on a 'special inventory' of the heritable securities excluding executors, and personal bonds excluding executors, and probate or administration may be obtained in England and Ireland in respect of the personal estate in these countries, and duty paid in respect of such on these instruments.

When deceased domiciled furth of the U. K.—In case of a person dying domiciled furth of the United Kingdom leaving personal estate in Scotland, England, and Ireland, an inventory must be given up in Scotland, probate or administration taken out in England and Ireland, and duty paid on such in respect of the property in each country.

In exhibiting inventories after 1st June 1881, the amount of debts due and owing by the deceased to persons in the United Kingdom, and funeral expenses, may be deducted from the value of the estate, for the purpose of paying the inventory duty. The account of such to be delivered with or annexed to the affidavit to the inventory.

The debts not to include voluntary debts payable on death, or payable under instruments not bona fide delivered three months before death. The Commissioners of Inland Revenue, within three years, may call for evidence of the contents of, or particulars verified by, the affidavit or inventory.

Where the gross estate of a deceased person dying after 1st June 1881 does not exceed £300, and the estate exceeds £100, if an inventory shall be given up in accordance with the special provisions of the Act, the duty to which the inventory is liable is 30s. (44 Vict. c. 12, § 34.)

Forms of the inventory and relative affidavit may be obtained at the Inland Revenue Office (Legacy and Succession Duty Department).

Additional and Corrective Inventories.—If there shall be any omission in the inventory inferring the payment of further duty, an additional inventory is required to be exhibited (48 Geo. III. c. 149, § 38; 16 and 17 Vict. c. 59, § 8). The stamp on the additional inventory is required to be of an amount sufficient to make up the stamp duty in respect of the total amount of all the estate. If the estate shall be over-estimated, or if something shall be improperly included in the inventory, a corrective inventory, duly stamped, requires to be exhibited. Allowance of the original inventory as a spoiled stamp will be obtained within six months after the recording of the second inventory.

James Keith, C.E.,

GAS, HYDRAULIC, VENTILATING, HEATING,

London, Edinburgh, and Arbroath,

INTIMATES that, owing to the great expansion of his business in London, and the extension of his Showroom Premises there, he has given up the Showroom in Edinburgh, and all orders entrusted to him from Edinburgh and district will now be executed from the Works in Arbroath.

Since the completion of the Forth and Tay Bridges, the main and shortest Railway Line between London and Aberdeen passes through Arbroath, which gives every facility for direct and speedy communication between the Edinburgh district and Arbroath—Arbroath being now only two hours' run by rail from Edinburgh.

There are no Shareholders to absorb any portion of the Profits, which are wholly divided among the holders of Participating Policies at intervals of Five Years. Its leading features are—Unquestionable Security, Liberal Conditions of Insurance, and Early Participation in Profits.

POSITION OF THE SOCIETY AT 1st MARCH 1891.

The Existing Assurances, including Bonus Additions, were	£10,593,986
The Annual Revenue was	425,696
And the Accumulated Fund was	3,353,887

IMMEDIATE BONUS TABLE.

Very Low Premiums. Sum assured absolutely Guaranteed.

Special attention is invited to this Table, which has been recently introduced. Under it Policies can be effected at less than the Without Profit Rates; and a distinguishing feature of it, as compared with the similar Tables given in the Prospectuses of other Societies, is that the sum assured is not liable to any deduction in the event of the future Bonuses falling short of the estimated amounts. Under this TABLE a person aged 30 next birthday can insure £1300 for the PREMIUM REQUIRED to insure £1000 under Table I., thus SECURING an IMMEDIATE BONUS of £300.

ENDOWMENT ASSURANCE POLICIES.

The Society also offers special advantages in its system of Endowment Assurances. The Rates of Premium charged upon these are extremely moderate, and they receive compound Bonuses at the same rate as the ordinary Policies, these Bonuses being payable along with the sum assured on attainment of the stipulated age or on previous death.

The number of Premiums payable is less by one than is charged by many offices.

Non-Forfeiture regulations unusually complete, and forfeiture of a valuable Policy impossible.

Guaranteed Surrender Values Endorsed on Policies.

CLAIMS are payable immediately after proof of death and title.

LOANS granted in connection with Life Insurance, on Life Interests, Reversions, and other approved security. Reversions purchased.

LEADING FEATURES.

COMPLETE SECURITY WITH MODERATE PREMIUMS.—LARGE BONUSES.—STRINGENT RESERVES.—IMMEDIATE PAYMENT OF CLAIMS.—UNUSUAL NON-FORFEITURE PRIVILEGES.—ECONOMIC SCHEME OF ASSURANCE :—PROFIT POLICIES AT NON-PROFIT RATES.

The Bonus Additions declared under With Profit Policies have hitherto been at the rate of £2 per cent. for each year after the first that the policies have been in force, while the Reserves for future profits are made on a more stringent basis than those of the majority of the Scottish Offices.

New Policies, with full participation, are entitled to an intermediate Bonus, at the rate of £1, 5s. per cent. for each year after the first completed prior to the next Division of Profits, thus securing the advantages of an Annual Division of Profits.

Scottish Amicable Life Assurance Society.

ESTABLISHED 1826.

EXISTING ASSURANCES, CLAIMS PAID, ACCUMULATED FUNDS,
£8,400,000. £4,600,000. £3,100,000.

SUMMARY OF ADVANTAGES.

Large Bonuses.—The Society being founded on the Mutual principle, all the Profits belong to the Policyholders themselves, and the amount distributed has been so large that the sums assured by the earlier Policies are now more than doubled. EXAMPLE: A Policy for £1000 effected in 1841 was, at the last Division of Profits, increased to £2066, 7s., and continues to receive further additions.

Low Premiums.—The Minimum-Premium System, introduced by the Society, has long been conspicuous for cheapness, and practically secures the benefit of Life Assurance at Cost Price. EXAMPLE: At age 30, an Annual Premium of £19, 10s. will at once assure on this system £1000, whereas, under the ordinary system, the immediate Policy obtainable for that Premium is only about £750.

General Regulations.—The Society's Regulations as to Immediate Payment of Claims, Non-forfeiture of Policies, Loans to meet Premiums, Surrender Values, Foreign Residence, etc., are most favourable to the Assured, having all been framed in their interest.

DEPOSITORS with this Company possess SECURITY of a high character. The Funds are lent over HERITABLE PROPERTIES WITHIN SCOTLAND. The Loans are, on the average, very moderate in amount, and in most cases are repayable by instalments embracing principal and interest, so that the margin of security is being steadily increased.

In addition to these Investments, the Company's UNCALLED CAPITAL, amounting to £180,000, furnishes a valuable Guarantee to Depositors; while the RESERVE FUND, amounting to £20,000, which is separately invested in BANK OF ENGLAND STOCK, affords a still further Security.

The Rate of INTEREST allowed on Deposits varies from  $2\frac{1}{2}$  to 4 per cent, according to the term for which the money is lodged.

BORROWERS will find the Company's arrangements simple and equitable. Parties are assisted in the Purchase of HOUSES or SHOPS for their own occupation.

The Instalments by which Loans are repayable are moderate, and a portion of the sum advanced may lie at interest. No Commission or Fines are charged, and no Assessment is made on Borrowers in name of additional interest dependent on the rise of the Bank Rates.

HITCHCOCK MECHANICAL SAFETY LAMP.

BURNS OPEN LIKE GAS.

Only Perfect Oil Lamp in the World.

NO SMOKE, NO SMELL.

Hundreds of Thousands in Use.

Easiest to Trim. Cleanliest to Handle.

THE HITCHCOCK having no chimney to create and radiate HEAT, is the only Lamp that should be used for Reading, Writing, or Sewing, because with a shade it sheds a cool, soft light down upon your work, and may be placed conveniently near without heating the head and eyes. This peculiarity of the HITCHCOCK—that it does not radiate heat—renders it the most desirable Lamp for the Library, the Study, and the Office, for WARM WEATHER and HOT CLIMATES.

A MARVEL OF USEFULNESS.—Besides being available for use in every room in the house, from the kitchen up to the nursery, and the SAFEST to CARRY from room to room, it is admirably adapted for Tramway Cars, Omnibuses, Railway Carriages, Railway Stations, Village Street Lamps, Residential Approaches and Gateways, Shooting Lodges, Stable Yards and Outhouses, Camping-out Parties, Picnic Parties, etc. etc. For all Climates, Seasons, and Circumstances, it rises PEERLESS among Lamps, for its usefulness never ends.

Try the HITCHCOCK, and prove whether its Steady Brilliance, Absence of Radiation of Heat, Ease of Management, Safety, and Portability do not make it the most Useful and Economical Lamp you have ever seen.

GALVANISED WIRE TRELLISING, No. 2.

Finished at top with Gothic Border, which gives a finished-like appearance, and made in panels to suit walls. Prices on application.

BAIN, YOUNG, & CO. most respectfully draw the attention of their Customers and others to their mode of Galvanised Wire Trellising, for training Creeping or any other kind of Plants on front and side walls of Residences and Garden Walls, for Fruit Trees, etc., or on any site where the same may be required. The above Trellising has been extensively supplied and erected by them for many years, and has given entire satisfaction to Professors, and other authorities in Horticulture, who recommend it as being the best in use for training Plants, Fruit Trees, etc. The material being light, strong enough for the purpose for which it is required, and the Trellising being kept out from the wall, and the heat of sun being equally dispensed on the Trellising and Plants, produces a wonderful effect, greatly helping the growth and health of the Plants, which speedily cover the wall in a most pleasant manner. From their great experience in this class of work B. Y. & Co. will be glad to take measurements; or if measurements be sent, prices will be given, thus enabling their Customers to know the entire cost previous to the work being done.

HOUSE OF MERCY, ST. CATHARINE'S CONVENT, 4 LAURISTON GARDENS, EDINBURGH.

SPECIAL ATTENTION.—The Sisters of Mercy who conduct this LAUNDRY—opened ten years ago, and now enjoying extensive patronage from Families resident in Edinburgh, Schools, and Hotels—solicit further Orders. Terms moderate. Printed Price List to be obtained by application to the REVEREND MOTHER SUPERIOR at above address.

---

The Van collects and returns Washings in all parts of the City and Suburbs.

NEEDLEWORK AND KNITTING ARE ALSO DONE ON THE PREMISES.

The House of Mercy has been established to board, lodge, and train as domestic servants, girls who have no home or proper protection. Numbers of girls are being lost daily for want of those safeguards which a respectable home ensures, and which are so necessary for a girl in a city like Edinburgh. Those only who visit the very poorest and lowest localities can know the terrible dangers and temptations by which such girls are surrounded. It is idle to deplore the number of those who fall, and who, besides losing their own souls, bring many others to ruin, if strenuous efforts are not at the same time made to avert this evil. The SISTERS, therefore, confidently appeal to the charitable for assistance in a work which, they venture to think, can have no small claim on their sympathy and support.

Annual Subscriptions, however small, and Donations of Money, Food, or Clothes, will be thankfully acknowledged by the Reverend Mother Superior, who will be happy to show Visitors over the Laundry on Thursdays and Fridays.

The "Economic" Patent Stoves

HAVE MET A LONG-FELT WANT. Although but recently introduced they are now so well and favourably known, that at this time of day a detailed description of the principle of them, or a more than summary statement of their pre-eminent advantages, is no longer required. The leading features are:—

The noxious fumes inseparably arising from the combustion of gas or oil are COMPLETELY CONDENSED within the Stoves, and passed off into the Movable Tray beneath, in the form of a liquid quite devoid of smell, and containing a large amount of free sulphur.

Unsolicited • Opinions.

Dr ANDREW WILSON, F.R.S.E., Editor of Health, says :

"The problem of heating our houses, and especially our lobbies and bedrooms in a hygienic, cheap, and satisfactory fashion, appears to us to be capable of realisation . . . . The peculiarity and special feature of these Stoves is their absolute freedom from smell, while to this sine qua non in the matter of heating and lighting we must add another important fact, namely, that the Stoves under notice are of a most economic kind, and will burn from three to six hours, according to size, at a cost of one penny. These Stoves are most cleanly in action, and give off no smoke, while they burn noiselessly, and are free from all risk or danger to life. Further praise or commendation than is contained in these facts no invention of the kind can need or require."

Dr CLARK, Ph.D., F.C.S., F.I.C., City Analyst for Glasgow, says:

"The combustion seemed to be perfect, and I could not detect any smell. Superior to any other with which I am acquainted."

The "IRONMONGER" says:

"There is no smell either with gas or oil . . . . The atmosphere of the apartment is pure and agreeable . . . . The Oil Stoves for isolated places country villages, &c., are invaluable."

A SEVERE TEST.

The head gardener of a large establishment in the South of England writes, under date, 31st January, 1889.—"I have used your Gas Stoves (two of them) in two of the forcing houses here, and found them to work admirably. They evidently do not injure the most sensitive flowers."

W. B. DICK'S PATENT EXTINGUEURS.

Tested and Triumphant.

By way of exhibiting the power of L'Extincteur over the ordinary appliances that have hitherto been solely in use, we append the results of a competitive trial that took place in Plumstead Marshes by command of the War Office Authorities, and under their superintendence. These results show the comparative merits of L'Extincteur, the Hydrepult, and the Hand Pump supplied to the London Fire Brigade. The piles for the contest consisted of three erections of timber, each forming three sides of a square 27 feet 9 inches by 9 feet 8 inches high, fitted up with shelves stuffed with highly inflammable material from Woolwich Arsenal.

These erections having been ignited and allowed to burn fiercely, the order was given to extinguish the fires, with the following results:—

L'EXTINCTEUR.—The fire attacked by TWO MEN, and extinguished in  $7\frac{1}{2}$  minutes.

HYDREPULT.—The fire attacked by FIVE MEN, with an unlimited supply of water, and extinguished in fifteen minutes.

HAND PUMP.—The fire attacked by SEVEN MEN, with an unlimited supply of water, who could not extinguish it, nor make any impression upon it.

The Fire subsequently Extinguished by L'Extincteur.

Accompanied with a Map of Scotland printed in Colours, and Plans of all the Principal Towns.

The only General Directory of Scotland issued in the Kingdom. The Book is published annually, the whole of the information being thoroughly revised every year by a staff of efficient Agents solely employed on the Firm's Publications, and the work thus brought up to date stands unrivalled as the Standard Directory for Scotland. It is not printed from plates, but from type kept standing solely for its use.

PRESS OPINIONS.

Times.—The work which Messrs Kelly have done so long and so successfully for London and for England and Wales, Messrs Wm. Macdonald & Co., Edinburgh, have accomplished for Scotland and for its two capitals. All possible justice is done even to the most distant parts of Scotland. The work is thoroughly business-like in its scope and object.

Newcastle Daily Chronicle.—Should be kept for reference by all having business with the northern kingdom.

Scottish Leader.—The construction of the work is evidently the result of much laborious and accurate work.

Edinburgh Courant.—Complete, accurate, and exhaustive; must be of great service to all engaged in business in Scotland.

Liverpool Daily Post.—Will be welcomed by all who have business interests in Scotland.

Leeds Mercury.—A valuable and carefully compiled work—a bulky volume, each edition being larger than its predecessor.

The Birmingham Daily Gazette.—Messrs William Macdonald & Co., the Kellys of North Britain, have just issued another annual and much-enlarged edition of their practical, useful, complete, and admirably compiled Directory.

Glasgow Evening News.—It does for the whole of Scotland what local directories do for particular districts and cities, and as its information is as reliable and accurate as it is extensive, merchants and all engaged in business will find it a very useful—and indeed necessary—volume.

Edinburgh Evening News.—The publishers' agents visited every city, town, and parish in Scotland to verify every name. Their work has been very satisfactory, and a capital work of reference has been placed in the hands of the public.

The Bookseller.—It is stated that every name and address in the work has been verified, and in the instances in which we have been able to test this, the assertion is fully justified. The work of compilation has been carefully performed throughout.

The Publisher's Circular.—For the general arrangement and accuracy of the volume we have nothing but praise.

The British and Colonial Printer and Stationer.—Numerous improvements have been made in the present edition of this useful Directory.

Invention.—Great care has been taken in its compilation, and the whole appearance of the Directory is such as should cause Messrs Kelly to look to their laurels. All possible justice has been done to the subject-matter dealt with, and the general arrangement of the information contained.

Iron.—Messrs Wm. Macdonald & Co. occupy in Scotland the position filled by Messrs Kelly & Co. in England, and their Scottish Directory and Gazetteer, although necessarily not as bulky as the London Directory, will be found to be as carefully compiled.

Scotsman.—A work already favourably known to business men. Its usefulness is materially increased by the addition of a large number of new names. Much credit is due to the compilers for their enterprise and industry in collecting this information.

Birmingham Daily Post.—The lines of a good directory are fixed. The names are here grouped, arranged, and convenient for reference. The pains that have been taken to secure accuracy render it a valuable book of its kind.

Financial Times.—Admirably arranged, and contains a vast amount of information indispensable to those who have—or aim at having—business relations with Scotland.

Daily Free Press.—Must prove of great service to business and professional men.

Scottish News.—No effort has been spared to make the information regarding Scotland as complete as possible.

Greenock Telegraph.—Skillfully and clearly arranged, so as to make the information wanted at once and easily accessible.

The Colliery Guardian.—We cannot imagine anything better, and are glad there is a work so good.

The Insurance Journal.—Conciseness and convenience of reference have evidently been studied by the compilers.

Evening Citizen.—By a liberal outlay of capital, it has been found practicable to keep the type standing, so that in future publications only changes of address or designation will have to be made. The risk of error is thus considerably lessened, and general accuracy will be assured in a work which is of high commercial value.

The Insurance Record.—Grows in size and utility each successive year, and the proprietors have spared neither trouble nor expense to ensure reliability. The printing, binding, and general appearance of the directory reflect the utmost credit upon those responsible for its production.

National Guardian.—With a degree of enterprise which does the publishers infinite credit, they have arranged to keep up the type for future issues, which will therefore have the advantage of being merely subjected to revision, instead of being set up afresh from the beginning. Something approaching to absolute accuracy is thus secured, and the usefulness of the imposing volume, already great, will be immeasurably increased. As it stands, the book is a credit to the publishers and their staff through whose labours it has been compiled.

The Victualling Trades' Review.—With this work on one's desk there need be no returned letters. It has been carefully compiled. We have tested its claims to reliability, and found them right every time. We can recommend the work for the painstaking care which marks every one of its pages. No hotelkeeper can afford to be without the directory, which, in point of completeness, surpasses even our city directory. It is grateful to use a common but expressive phrase, of useful information.

THE LATEST AND BEST WORK OF ITS KIND.

The only General Business Directory of Ireland Published in the Kingdom.

PRESS OPINIONS.

Freeman.—Indispensable to all firms carrying on business either in or with Ireland. Seldom has a work deserved its title better than that which we have now before us; it is, indeed, in the fullest sense a complete and perfect "Business Directory of Ireland," comprising within its pages compendious alphabetical and classified lists of all the principal manufacturers, merchants, shippers, and traders in all the chief cities, towns, and trade centres. Accuracy, which is the greatest essential of a directory, is here observed in the minutest detail, and the work reflects much credit on the care, industry, and patience employed by its compiler.

Irish Times.—In the "Business Directory of Ireland," merchants and traders will find all the special information for which they have hitherto looked in vain. The book contains the most exhaustive alphabetical and classified lists of the principal merchants, traders, and manufacturers to be found in the smallest or in the largest Irish business towns.

Liverpool Mercury.—This is an exceedingly useful compilation, the only exclusively mercantile directory published for Ireland, and will be found most useful.

Morning Mail.—We have nothing but praise for the arrangement of the compilation and the excellent taste with which the volume is brought out. We believe that such a work is one that must appeal strongly to the business public of the whole Kingdom, or that part of it having commercial dealings with Ireland.

United Ireland.—The plan adopted is simple but exhaustive: there is no complicated arrangement. To mercantile firms the book will be invaluable, as the lists of principal merchants, manufacturers, and traders in all the Irish cities and towns are given in a handy and easily accessible shape. The work as a whole is highly creditable to Irish enterprise.

Irish Catholic.—The work seems to us to form an invaluable adjunct of the counting-house, the study, and the hotel. No business establishment should be without it. We trust the "Business Directory of Ireland" will have the large sale it deserves.

Evening Telegraph.—A work of an exceptionally useful nature is "The Business Directory of Ireland." The publication represents a vast amount of labour on the part of the compilers; and the manner in which the information is presented adds much to its value, and bespeaks success in every way.

Queen.—To men of business, books of this class are always useful, and not to them alone. Tourists and visitors staying for a while in Ireland would be thankful for such aid as this volume supplies, and, therefore, hotels and other places of resort should have it at hand.

The Caterer.—To all those that are in any way associated with, or interested in, the industries of Ireland, this exhaustive business register ought to come as a "boon and blessing." The compiler has certainly done his work well; it will usefully reinforce the reference books of the commercial room.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

Liverpool Mercury.—To the tourists in Scotland Macdonald's Guides are as indispensable, and, we may add, as well known as Boadeley is on the continent of Europe. The text is just what the text of such a book should be—clear and concise in its directions, full of interesting details, and not too diffuse.

Brechin Advertiser.—Have enjoyed wide popularity. They are greatly appreciated by the tourist, and much valued as books of reference by the student of history as well as the antiquarian.

Torquay Directory.—No one should undertake to spend a holiday in Scotland without having this book in his possession.

Liverpool Daily Post.—It includes within its purview out of the way places and villages which are usually neglected by compilers of guide-books. The illustrations are very numerous. The maps and plans are clear and useful.

Yorkshire Post.—The work gives a comprehensive but concise account of all that is likely to interest a visitor to Scotland.

Manchester Guardian.—Appears to have substantial claims upon the favour of the traveller who is seeking "Caledonia, stern and wild."

Sussex Daily News.—There is simply nothing like these Guides to be had in Scotland or anywhere else; and thousands of tourists in Scotland have found them indispensable.

North British Daily Mail.—Is profusely illustrated and fully indexed, deals with all places of interest in Scotland.
